- Fundamentally change First Year Leadership Experience (FLE) and implement StrengthsQuest program and wellness initiatives for students

Notable Accomplishments

2009 – 2012 Adjunct Associate Professor, Department of Infectious Diseases & Pathology, University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine

2009- Consulting Pathologist, Specialty VETPATH

1998 – 2007 Associate Professor, Department of Infectious Diseases & Pathology, University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine

- Course Coordinator for Small Animal Pathology

- Course Coordinator for Systemic Pathology
- Lecturer
  - Small Animal Pathology
    - Dermatopathology
    - Diseases of the Endocrine System
    - Diseases of the Urinary System
    - Diseases of the Cardiovascular System
  - Systemic Pathology
    - Diseases of the Integumentary System
    - Diseases of the Endocrine System
    - Diseases of the Lymphoid System
  - General Pathology
    - Non-neoplastic Disturbances of Growth
    - Neoplasia and Carcinogenesis
  - Seminars in Medicine
    - Applications of Immunohistochemistry in Diagnostic Pathology
    - Vesicular and Bullous Skin Disease
  - Applied Pathology Clerkship Junior and Senior Veterinary Students

2002 – 2004 Chief of Necropsy Pathology

1993 – 2003 Chief of Surgical Pathology

1993 – 1998 Assistant Professor, Department of Pathobiology, University of Florida
College of Veterinary Medicine

1993 – 1996 Resident Training Program Coordinator

1992 – 1993 Clinical Instructor, Department of Comparative & Experimental Pathology,
University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine

1990 – 1992 Pathology Resident University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine

1983 – 1990 Veterinarian, Small Animal Medicine and Surgery, Private Practice

1980 – 1981 Academic Advisor and Counselor, Office of the Dean of Student Relations,
Colorado State University College of Veterinary Medicine

Current Career Objectives

- Provide accurate, reliable, and timely evaluation and interpretation of surgical and dermatopathology specimens to support the best practices in management of disease conditions in animals.
- Provide reliable and timely communication with referring veterinarians and in house clinicians regarding biopsy interpretation results to assist in case management of cutaneous diseases

- Maintain and build a digital library of clinical and microscopic pathologic changes of diseases of the skin in animals for teaching students of veterinary medicine and pathology and dermatology residents in training
- Advancement of the profession of veterinary medicine

Past Career Objectives

- Establishing and re-evaluating relevance and availability of student learning outcomes in the veterinary medical curriculum
- Developing practice-ready skills in low-stakes, clinical skills environments
- Maintaining accreditation standards
- Curricular review, revision, and documentation to meet needs of profession and college
- Student wellness initiatives
- Advancement of the profession of veterinary medicine
- Interdisciplinary education initiatives
